The Slavery Agitation --- What has it Done! What will it bring About! How Does it Effect the White Bace!

We insist that the agitation of the slavery question, in and out of Congress. has been deleterious to the best interests of both the white man and the negro. In the agitation of this vexed question millions of dollars have been spent-sectional strife, hatred and ill-will have been entres all the hopes of the American people, and the down-trodden and oppressed of every clime has been shaken to its such instrumentalities as these.

It is well for the sympathetic to feel for the oppressed-he is poor, indeed, who has not a heart to feel for other's woesbut these kindly feelings should be directed with judgement and guarded with discretion. Those who think that slavery in itself, is sinful, should go on their errands of mercy as sensible men, and not as fanaties or lunatics.
